

Spotlight is On --- Diane Iten Auto Brokers

Buying a vehicle can be complicated, time consuming and sometimes...frustrating.

Meet Diane Iten, of Diane Iten Auto Brokers, the auto buying service for busy people. Committed to saving you time, money and most importantly piece of mind, Diane Iten Auto Brokers for the last 10 years has been owned and operated by Diane. All calls and inquires are handled by her directly. Ensuring you get a straight answer from the start! She has been working in the auto industry for the past 20 years, both on the sales floor and as a finance manager. This experience has created connections with automotive professionals all over the Twin Cities and greater Metro area, giving her a strong foundation and insuring the best price on YOUR next vehicle.

Do you dislike the auto buying process? You are not alone. So do Diane's clients, that's why she is committed to finding you any make or model, new or used. She will help you get the most money for your trade, and with her finance background, will even help you find the best financing and rates for your next purchase.

"Advocacy is one of my core strengths. This quality, combined with honesty and an incredible work ethic will shape your next car buying experience. My past customers have graciously written testimonials on my behalf. If you are interested, they are available on my website" says Diane.

Think you might benefit from Diane's expertise? If you are a busy person, and are in the market for a new or pre-owned vehicle but do not like the buying process, or if you are a small company looking for a fleet of vehicles, or if you are an HR Department looking to add to your employee benefit package, give her a call today!
